OUR THEATER

This is the theater where our life's dramas are played. It is here where we came everyday to receive our education and to get the start necessary in establishing a place for ourselves in the world. The theme running through this book is to remind us of the time we spent getting our education, our daily experiences, our daily dramas, and our activities here at Lake. May this scholastic preparation make us more fit to take our place in the world of tomorrow and to help us make bigger and better film successes in the future.

THEATER HISTORY

Lake Township was first organized as an independent township in 1844. Before this, it was a part of Perrysburg and Troy Townships.

From 1844 on, rapid development began. In 1849, two school districts were formed, this changed to eight in 1876. And then to ten in 1900. Thirteen teachers were employed to teach the ten schools.

But soon the residents of Lake Township were considering the centralization of these ten schools. Action was taken, and, in 1908, a new building was constructed. This building is now known to all as the Grange hall.

From 1909, when the school opened, to the present time, four superintendents have been in charge. They, and the years they served are as follows: Arthur Swartz, 1909 to 1915; Wilbur Bashore, 1915 to 1919; E. B. Graham, 1919 to 1924 and C. T. Falls, 1924 to the present time.

Lake, in 1911, was recognized by the State Department of Education as a high school of the second grade because at that time there were only three classes in high school. However, in 1915, the other class was added, making Lake a first grade high school. This accounts for the fact that there was no graduating class in 1915.

As the enrollment increased, a larger school was needed to take care of the students. This building was constructed as near to the center of the township as possible, and was ready for occupancy in 1922. Two portables were also found to be necessary in a few years. The first was constructed in 1928 and the second in 1931.

In 1934, Millbury wished to become consolidated with our school. This issue was voted upon and passed.

Through the years Lake has gained much recognition in the county and through this has become one of the outstanding schools. So far, the graduating classes have totalled 585. The present enrollment in the high school (including the seventh and eighth grade) is 311, in the first six grades 349, and in Millbury 85. A teaching staff of twenty-four are employed.

THEATER MANAGERS

The people of Lake Township have picked for the Lake Theater managers six capable men who have spent their time working to make our theater a place Lake students are proud to spend their twelve years of school. Since these men are from different sections of the township they have a broad knowledge of the desires of the community around them.

Fred Nietz

Elmer Goodman

John Pinniger

Wayne Cowles

Dale Akenberger

Alvin Keller

The president, Fred Nietz Sr., a former member of the board, is now serving his first term of office. He represents the north-west portion of the township.

Elmer Goodman, the vice-president, represents the central portion of the township. He is completing his fourth year as a board member.

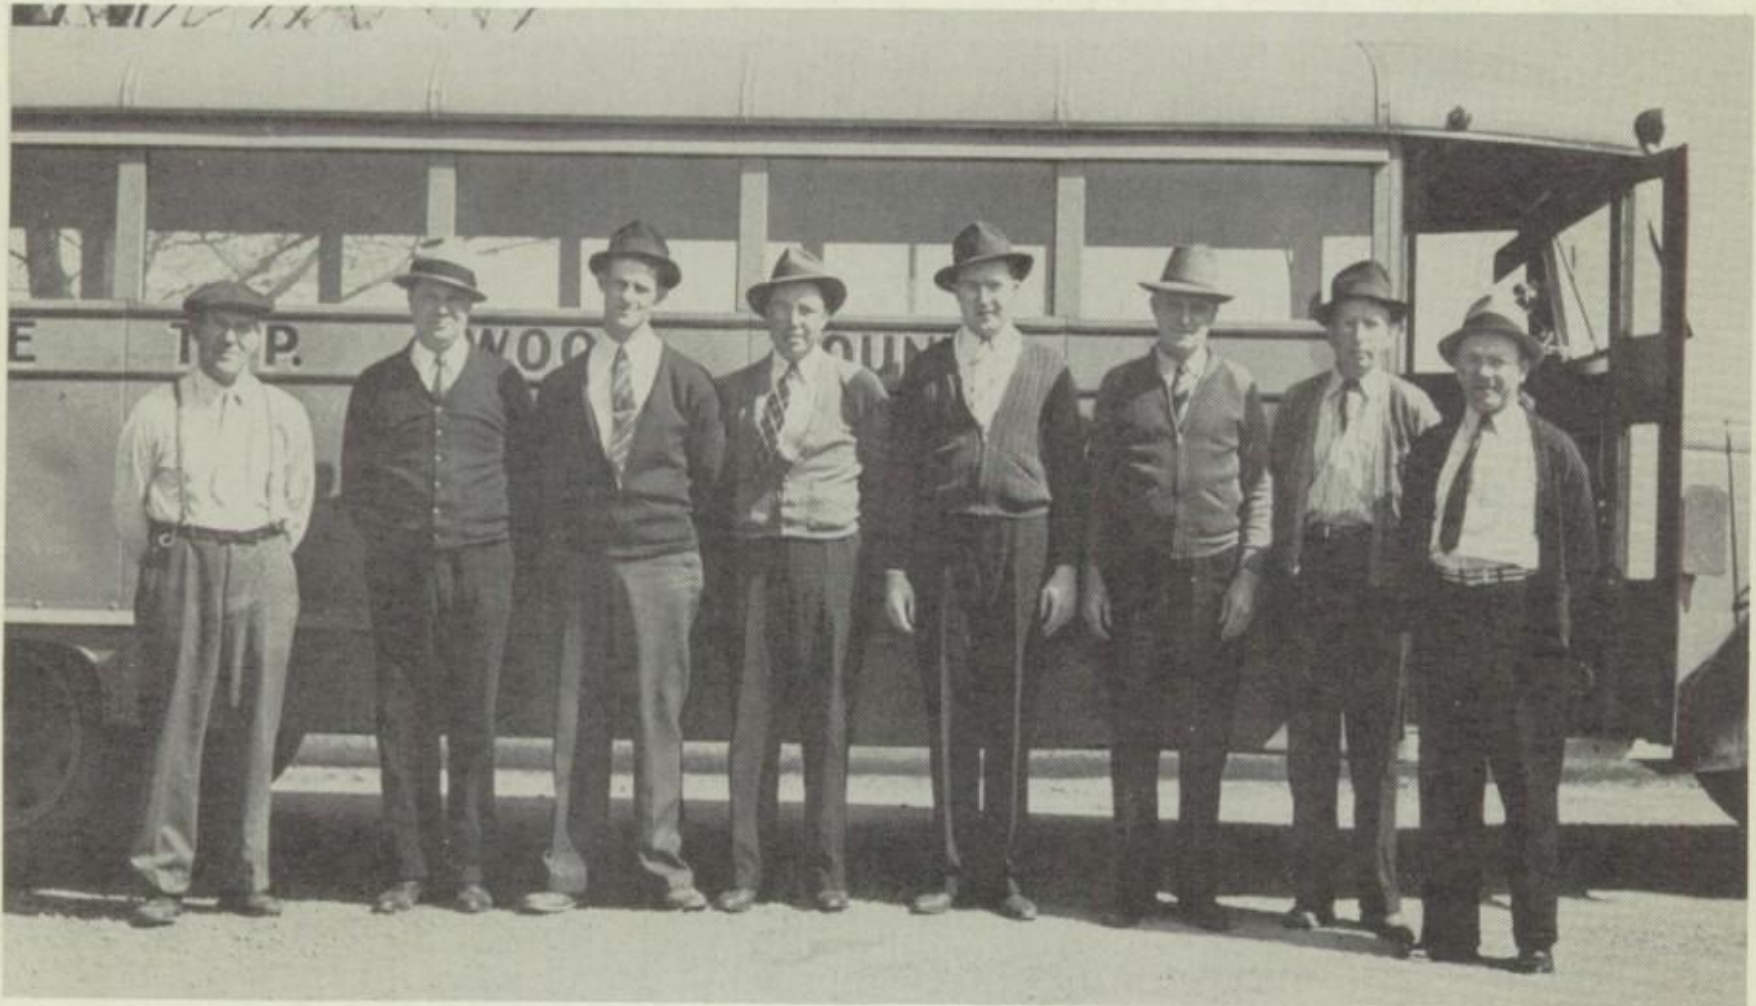

The township clerk is John Pinniger. He represents the central portion and this is his fourth year of office.

Wayne Cowles, a representative from the Millbury district, is serving his fourth year. He is the first Lake Township alumnus to become a member of the board.

The representative from the south-west portion of the township is Dale Akenberger. He is a former alumnus of Lake and is completing his second year as a board member.

Alvin Keller is serving his second year in office as a representative of the southern part of the township. He too, is a Lake alumnus.

USHERS

Ushering holds an important part in any theater. And, to the ushers of Lake, the bus drivers, much appreciation is due.

The present staff of eight ushers was carefully chosen by the school board who picked to the best of their ability, the eight men of the community to whom they think the lives of students of Lake should be entrusted on their daily rides to and from school.

Of the eight busses at Lake five are township-owned. The others are owned by George Beckman, Frederick Shumaker, and Harry Boysen.

To those eight men we offer our sincere thanks for the patience and service shown during the past nine months.

PRODUCER

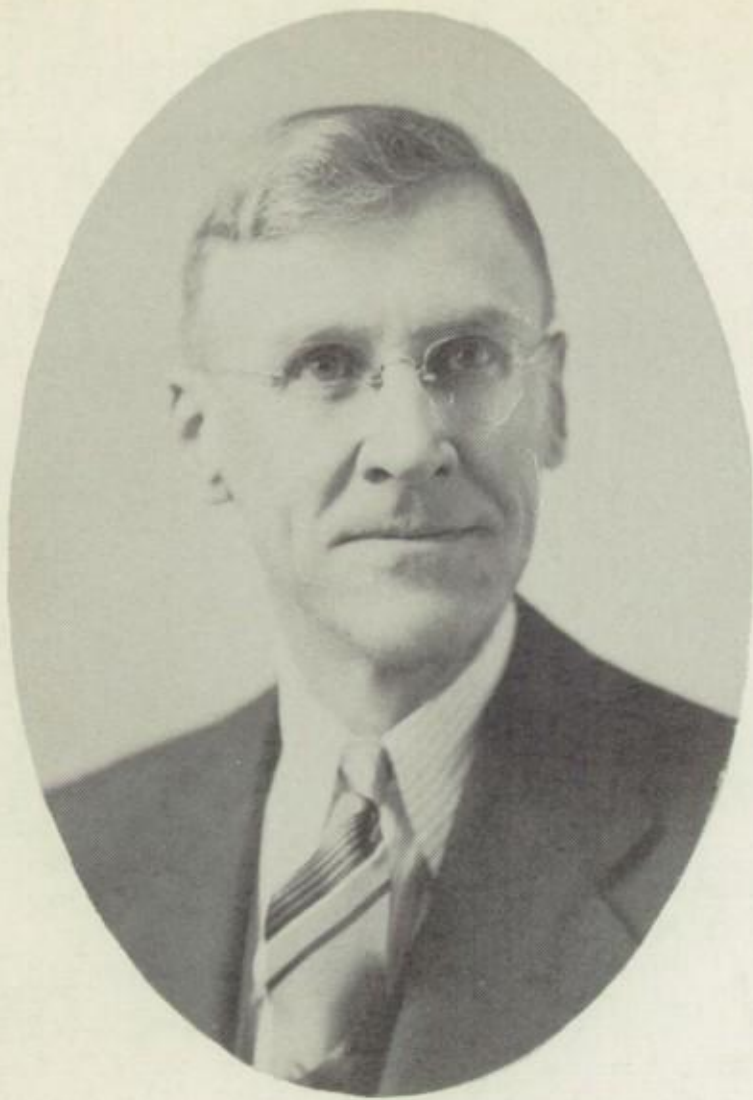

For the past seventeen years, Clifton T. Falls has been the producer of Lake's activities.

It was through his untiring efforts that Lake has established in the past a high standard among neighboring schools. Everything in his power has been done to make the years he has been here a complete success in every way. And, as we all know, his aim has been accomplished throughout the years.

Much credit, gratitude and respect is due our producer for his devotedness and his service.

DIRECTOR

Otto H. Bruning, our director, has been at Lake for the past twenty-four years. Through these years he has never failed in his job of directing the activities of Lake Students.

In spite of all the responsibilities he has as director of the student body he has, at all times, kept up his spirit of cooperation.

We feel sure that he has done and will do everything he can to make Lake a better place.

"TODAY IS OURS"

The main feature of the day brings to our view the presentation, "Today Is Ours", starring the Senior Class.

The class of '41 began its freshmen year in 1937 with John Baker as president, Richard Lapish as vice-president, and Clyde Schulte as secretary-treasurer for the seventy-six students enrolled. Interesting events were the receiving of class pins, intramural tournament, and graduation.

The next year brought seventy-three of the former students back for another year at Lake. John Baker was again president with Philip Guthrie, vice-president; Doris Cowles, secretary-treasurer; and Frederick Pieper, reporter.

The scene then changes to the next year when the class elected Philip Guthrie, president; Clyde Schulte, vice-president; Dorothy Lilje, secretary; Dick Lapish, sergeant-at-arms. The outstanding scenes were: the presentation of "A Crazy Mix-Up"; the annual Junior and Senior Banquet, when they played host to the graduating class of '40; and the crowning of Geraldine Belch as May Queen. She was attended by Kathleen Krummel, Alice Recker, Eileen Root, Jean Hicks, Joyce Kuebler, and Dorothy Eckert.

Then came their last year at the Lake Theater. To lead the class this year, Philip Guthrie was again chosen president; Richard Lapish, vice-president; Doris Cowles, secretary; Alice Recker, treasurer; and John Calmes, sergeant-at-arms. Their busy calendar included: Pictures taken at Northland; the selection of a ring; the choosing of name cards and invitations and the presentation of, "That's One On Bill". Their last and final year at the Lake Theater ended all too soon when the class held their baccalaureate services on May 25 and graduation on May 27.

CLASS WILL

We, the stars of the 1941 production, being at the height of our high school career, do hereby esteem it both timely and proper to release this, our last will and testament.

To our producer and director we leave the joy of producing bigger and better hits in the coming years, and we wish for the future success of our supporting casts.

To the discoveries of 1942 we leave our recommendations for the leading roles and hope that they may enjoy success as much as we have.

To the juvenile supporters we entrust all our old traditions and wish that we could be here to help them keep them.

To the baby stars we bequeath our position as stars in 1944.

We leave all our old scripts to the custodian who shall see that they are properly destroyed.

To anyone who wants it, Doris Baker leaves her ever-present laugh.

Geraldine Belch leaves her winning personality, her beauty and her popularity to those who strive to be our future May Queens.

Studios Raymond Burger wills some of the same to Bernie Jackson.

To Howard Beck and the other straight-haired lads, John Calmes leaves his beautiful black curly hair. May it help them be the heart-throbs of the girls in the future.

To some ambitious junior, Doris Cowles leaves her monthly question, "Is the paper coming out today?"

Pollyanna DeWitt leaves her shyness to Joan Moss.

Norman Dusing and Ralph Johnston leave their after-school rendezvous with Joella and Betty to two worthy juniors.

To someone who likes to work, Dorothy Eckert leaves her position as secretary to Mr. Stout and Mr. Hawver.

To Louis Smiler, Harlan Failor wishes to leave his flashy shirts and his tallness.

To Junior Davenport, Lee Geisbuhler wills his ability to come to class every day without his English assignment.

Jeanette Goodman leaves her easy-to-make-friends ability to Jean Rudick.

Philip Guthrie leaves his friendliness to everyone to Eugene Gilsdorf.

Donna Haynes bequeaths her chubbiness to Betty Johnson.

To Mary Ann Williams, Jean Hicks wills her ability to dance and have fun.

Catherine Hrbac leaves her ability to type stencils to Norma Jean Guthrie.

Iva Mae Isch wills her ability to get out of classes to Betty Calmes.

Katherine Kaufman wills her place as pianist for the glee clubs to Shirley Volker.

Virginia Keller and Clyde Schulte will to those two most deserving juniors their ranks as valedictorian and salutatorian.

To John Rudolph, Charles Knudson bequeaths his ability to make long-shots on the basketball floor when they are most needed.

To Virginia Shine, Kathleen Krummel wills her pretty curly hair.

Dick Lapish, better known as "Mose," leaves his sense of humor to Don Swartz.

To some individuals who like to work hard every month, Alice Recker and Dorothy Lilje leave their places as co-editors on the staff and annual.

Florence Longnecker leaves her interest in boys to Audrey Grant.

Jean Mae Lutman leaves her shorthand ability to Myron Sundermeier.

To Darrel Kesling, Eddie Nietz leaves his arguing at all times.

To some junior who deserves the position, Fred Pieper bequeaths his place on the team as captain.

Dick Ramsey wills his lunch eating habit the fourth period to Walter Facer.

Eileen Root leaves her slimness to Mary O'Kenka.

To Harvey Failor, Junior Schrieber gives his ability to get along with the girls.

To Ruth Lehman and Annabelle Niles, Betty Sigler and Erma Swartz leave their shyness and interest in boys.

Hattie Stoner bequeaths her boldness to Lillie Mae Clapsaddle to use in the future.

Dorothy Taylor leaves her shortness to Jean Lee and Nadine Flick.

And now before our cutting director, Mr. Snyder, gets around to cutting out any of these last wishes we do hereby set our seal on this document, on this the twenty-seventh day of May, 1941.

CLASS PROPHECY

Let's leave the theater for a minute and take an imaginary tour to one of the lots where films are made. Here we find former Lake students working at various things that they chose as their careers. Remember it's not 1941 now, but that it's 1950.

As the tour starts we are ushered into the outer office of President Philip Guthrie. We are surprised to recognize old classmates, Erma Swartz and Donna Haynes working as stenographers. Soon Catherine Hrbac, who is now private secretary to Philip comes to say that he is ready to show us around.

First we are taken to the make-up department where we find Doris Baker, the day's leading hair stylist, working on Geraldine Belch, who is her model. Over in the far corner Dorothy Eckert is applying correct make-up to Jean Hicks, the Outdoor Girl of 1950. Dorothy is now the leading make-up artist in moviedom.

Next, we are conducted to the set where they are about to film a scene from a play by scenario writer, Dorothy Lilje. Richard Lapish, the studio's gag man is consulting her about some jokes. Dick Ramsey, the director, calls for more lights and looking for the lighting director we find Ralph Johnston, who is telling Eileen Root, the costume designer, how to design a dress to get the correct lighting effect. Over on the left, Junior Schreiber, as mechanical advisor, is coaching the star in the production the method of driving a Model T Ford. On the set, Lee Geisbuhler, in his role as property manager directs the workmen as they set the stage.

As we leave the busy scene, we hear music, and pause long enough to find Katherine Kaufman leading the all-girl orchestra that belongs to the studio.

In the next room, paneled with mirrors, the chorus of the production goes into action under the direction of Kathleen Krummel who is now the dance director.

As we walk along to the publicity department Philip tells us that just recently a new type of film has been developed by the world's leading chemists, Raymond Burger and Harold Slagle.

Reaching the publicity department we find Clyde Schulte as manager. As he leads us through his department we greet: Dorothy Taylor who now writes a column of movie gossip for the Moviedom Journal. We learn that the editor of this enterprising paper is none other than Norman Dusing, our old friend. We are interrupted. In rushes Charles Knudson, shouting, "A find--a find--I've found her! She's colossal." You see, he is the talent scout for the theater.

Everyone in the room rushes out, vastly excited so we sit down and pick up the paper laying on the desk.

Turning to the first page we read that Iva Mae Isch is featured as the leading professional girls' basketball player and Harlan Failor standing beside her, has attained the same height in the boys' sports. We learn that he was coached by Fred Pieper. Down farther on the page we see that Jean Lutman has broken all records and is now the fastest typist in the country. The article goes on to say that she is secretary to Dean Virginia Keller, head of the Home Economics College, where Jeanette Goodman is teaching. On the next page we find a cartoon signed E. Nietz, and recognize it as one of Eddie's, one of our former classmates.

Next comes the advertisements and we are advised to buy Perk Up Hair Tonic by the smiling photo of John Calmes. He is now modeling for that company.

Soon our guide comes back and we are taken into the commissary for lunch. We learn that Alice Recker is head dietician here. She comes to our table and chats a minute, but is soon called away by none other than Doris Cowles, the head of the Eat More Food Committee.

After an afternoon of studio gazing we are taken to dinner, at the home of President Guthrie. Here we find that Florence Longenecker is in charge of his staff of servants.

He tells us that three of our old friends, Pollyanna DeWitt, Harriet Stoner, and Betty Sigler, are happily married and are living in the neighborhood.

But now, leaving our dreams, we come back to reality, realizing that we must bring our tour to an end, as this is 1941 and not 1950.

"TOMORROW'S COMING"

The first in the series of added short subjects brings to the screen the history of the members of the Junior Class in "Tomorrow's Coming!"

When they enrolled as freshmen the class elected the following leaders; president, Mary Ann Williams; vice president, Elsie Wasserman; secretary-treasure, Lewis Motycka. Their promotion was held at the end of the year with blue and white as the class color.

In the fall of 1939 new leaders were chosen; president, John Rudolph; vice president, Bernard Jackson; secretary-treasurer, Walter Facer; sergeant-at-arms, Myron Sundermeier. This year was climaxed with parties and other gay events.

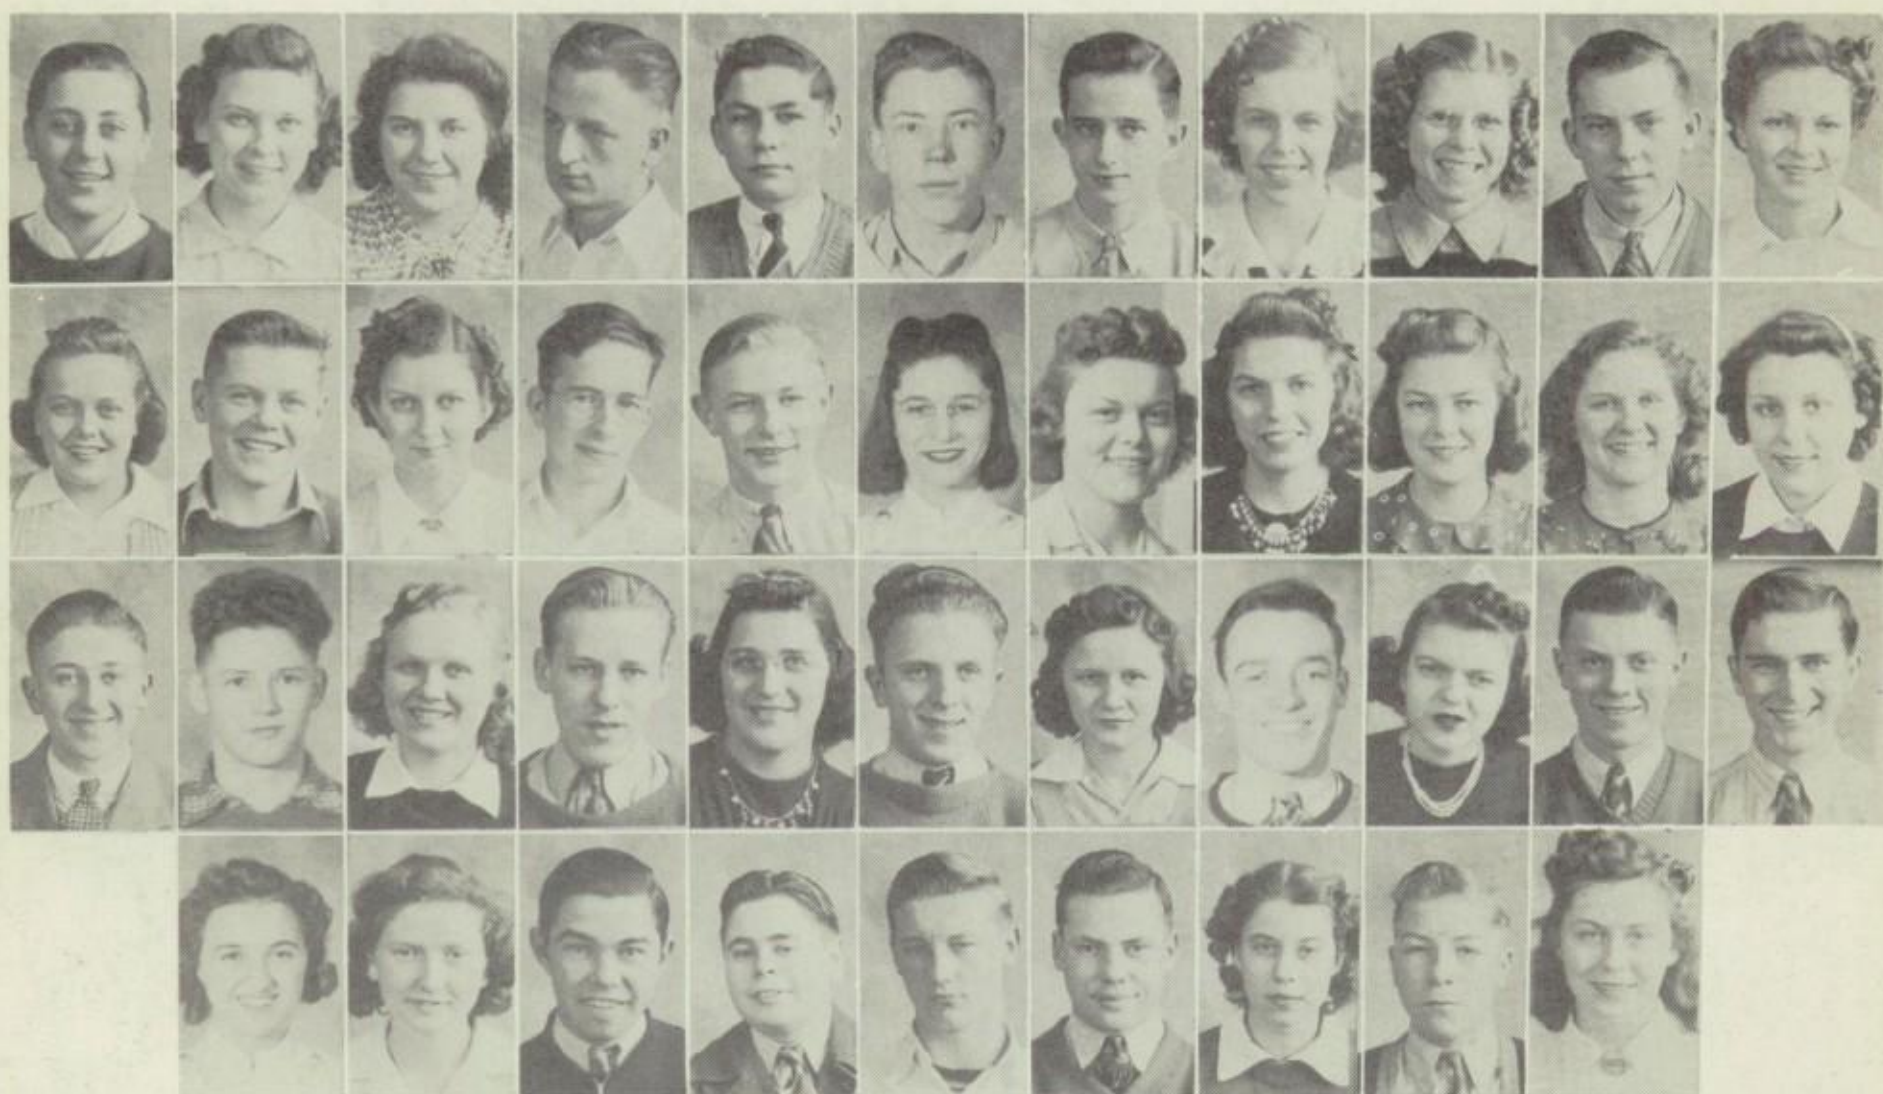

However, the year of 1940 proved to be the most interesting. It began with the election of officers, who are; president, John Rudolph; vice-president, Bernard Jackson; treasurer, Junior Davenport; secretary, Louis Smiler; sergeant-at-arms, Raymond Label.

The big premiere night came when the Junior Class presented, "A Fome for Henry" on December 5. The cast consisted of Joan Moss, John Rudolph, James Porterfield, Joella Harsh, Betty Mattson, Annabelle Niles, Walter Facer, Bernard Jackson, Mary Ann Williams, Gordon Rich, Louis Smiler, Laura Mahaffey, Ruth Lehman and Betty Walker.

The juniors were hosts to the seniors on May 3 at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet held in the Women's Building. The evening proved to be very enjoyable.

The year was climaxed on Rally Day, May 16, when Mary Ann Williams was crowned May Queen. Her attendants were Ida Jane Meyers, Doris Jean McKinley, Norma Guthrie, Laura June Mahaffey, Joella Harsh and Norma Scoff.

Next year will be the last year their activities will be shown in the Lake Theater. Interesting things are expected.

"ON OUR WAY"

The next short subject is a current vehicle entitled "On Our Way", featuring as players, the Sophomore class, the "finds" of 1940.

As the show begins we find an organization meeting being held. At this meeting the following were elected as officers: president, Glen Crago; vice president, Louis Wiese; secretary, Charles Hitchens; treasurer, William Goeckerman; sergeant-at-arms, Luther Obrock. During this year numerous activities occurred which included a skating party, several general parties and finally promotion night held on May 21.

As the film winds, the next year, this year, comes to the screen. Out of the fifty scholars these were chosen as officers; president, William Goeckerman; vice president, Louis Wiese; secretary, Gladys Sehr; treasurer, Lillian Valasek; sergeant-at-arms, Luther Obrock. The group this year has been extremely active, giving parties, dances and other social functions.

The class, as a whole, look forward to a more successful production next year.

THE FRESHMEN CLASS

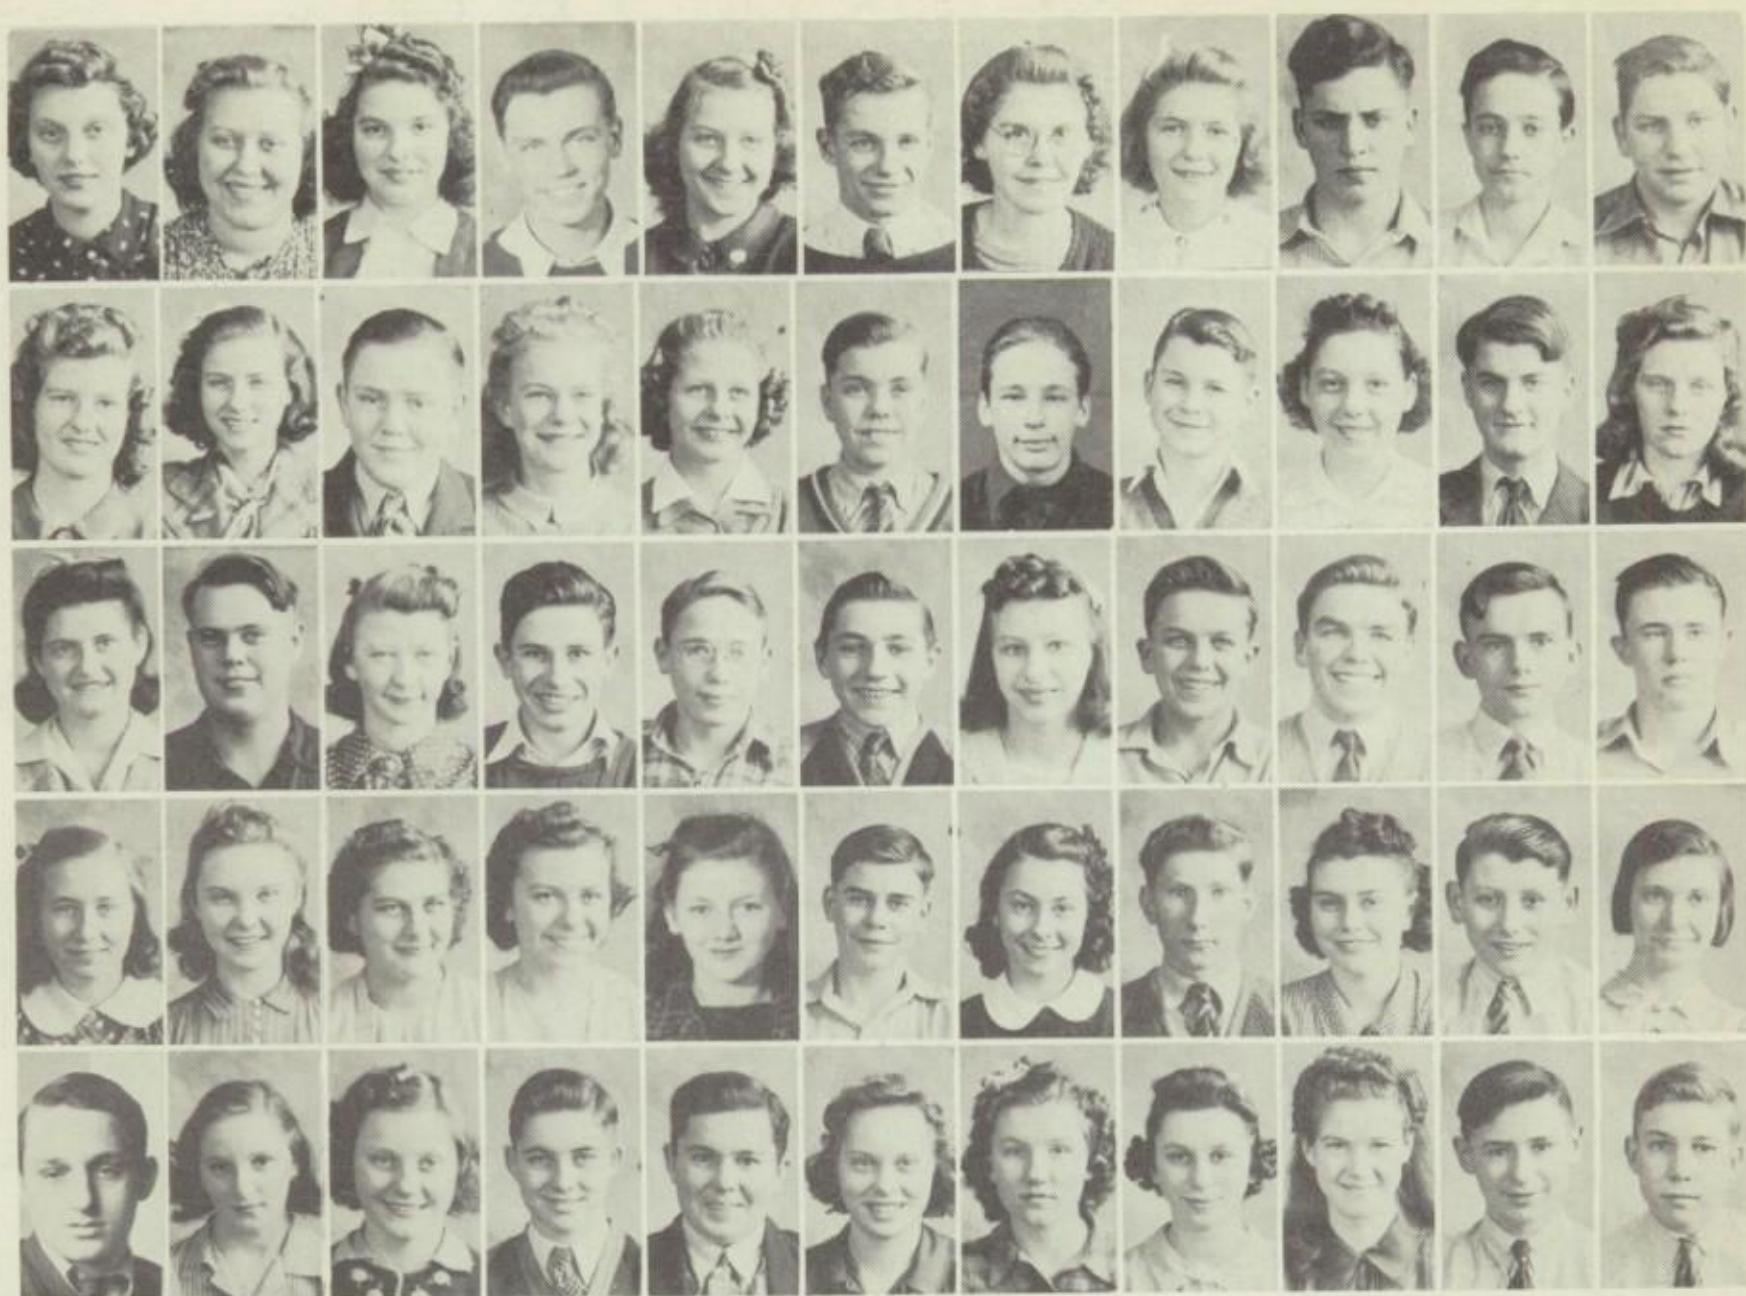

"GROWING PAINS"

And now, last but not least, comes the Freshmen class in their first public appearance, "Growing Pains", displaying new talent as the novie "finds" of 1941.

These "finds" elected the following officers at the beginning of the year: president, Bill Kesling; vice president, Beth Pratt; secretary, Ruth Bauman; treasurer, Fred Kruse; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Moser.

The class had two parties this year. A Hallowe'en party was held in Schober's barn, and in January, the class had a skating party on Clausen's pond.

The highlight of the year was the promotion service on May 23. The class chose maroon and gold as their class colors, and a white carnation as their class flower. The motto selected was "Impossible is Un-American". A play entitled, "In May with June" was also presented.

LAK E BREEZES STAFF

LAKE VIEWS STAFF

As in any movie reel, people always wonder all about the narrators. Who they are, and many other questions arise in the minds of the audiences. The narrators of this annual are the Lake Views' Staff of 1941, who have done all in their power to make this annual a success.

The first annual was published in 1925. For the next ten years the Lake student body did not have an annual. But, in 1935, however, a mimeographed annual was put out. Since then a lithographed annual has been printed each year.

Last year for the first time, the Lake Views was entered in a contest with other annuals. As a result it was awarded first place in the National Scholastic Press Association, and first place medalistic award in the Columbia Press Association. Much of the success was due to the work of Eva Hazel and Phyllis Berndt, co-editors, and to Mr. Snyder.

This year's annual was published by Dorothy Lilje and Alice Recker, assisted by a staff composed almost entirely of seniors. Mr. Snyder was again faculty adviser. It is hoped by the staff that, as last year, the Lake Views will again win and by doing so bring more honor to the Lake Theater.

LAKE BREEZES STAFF

Assistant narrators for this and all Lake productions is the Lake Breezes, published monthly by a staff headed by Alice Recker and Dorothy Lilje.

The Breezes has been put out monthly since 1925 and has always been a source of interest to all Lake students.

The Breezes has also been entered into competition with other papers. Under the editorship of Dondus Berndt, it received an award of second place in the Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society for High School Journalists in 1938. In 1939, it was again entered in the same contest, and received first place. The 1939 editions were put out by Connie Emline and Lois Dusing. Last year, the co-editors were Phyllis Berndt and Eva Hazel. Their efforts were also rewarded with an award of first place in the Quill and Scroll contest. The staff this year hopes to maintain, and perhaps better the high standing established in the past.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Honor ranks high no matter where it is, and when it is the National Honor Society it ranks still higher. The next portion of the Newsreel will be devoted to that society.

Lake is indeed fortunate to have a charter to this society, as there are only a few other schools in Wood County offering this high honor to students. Lake's charter was granted in 1938.

Election to the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors given by the school. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarship, to create an enthusiasm for leadership, to offer to the school, service at all times, and to develop character in the students. Membership to this society, therefore, is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The members are chosen by the teaching staff. Only 5% of the junior class may be elected during the sixth semester and not over 10% during their seventh semester. Not more than 15% of the senior class may be elected.

The following seniors belong to the society: Clyde Schulte and Virginia Keller, elected last year, and Dorothy Lilje and Alice Recker, elected this year. Junior members are Betty Mattson and Harvey Failor.

The alumni consists of: Helen Falls, Dondus Berndt, Leon Geisinger, George Suter, Mary Lavina Waggoner, Roland Volker, Lois Dusing, Connie Emling, Robert Booher, Dorothy Flury, Helen Mae Dalling, Laverne Kowalka, Phyllis Berndt, Eva Hazel, Janet Aschbacher, and Marion Bockbrader.

The show ends as the members enjoy a banquet.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

News comes flashing across the screen from all corners of Lake High School, and now, the Lake Theater presents, "The Cooks and Seamstresses of Tomorrow".

Out of a group of thirty-six, the following were chosen to head the group.

President-----	Harriet Stoner
Vice President-----	Alice Recker
Secretary-----	Doris Jean McKinley
Treasurer-----	Joella Earsh
Historian-----	Laura June Mahaffey

Under the supervision of Miss Watson, the organization participated in many activities.

September 13 and 14, Iva Mae Isch, Harriet Stoner and Miss Watson represented the club at the F. F. A. Convention, in Columbus.

November 7, Harriet Stoner, Iva Mae Isch, Joella Earsh, and Alice Recker journeyed to Napoleon where they attended the Northwestern Ohio F. F. A. Convention. At this time all four of the girls received the third degree.

The club sponsored a variety program on November 7, which netted them about $60.00. This was the first time the club ever did anything of this type. The first half of the show consisted of an amateur contest for the first eight grades, with Mr. Wilson, athletic coach, as Master of Ceremonies. The second half was a quizz program, with three lady high school teachers battling against three men teachers. Mr. Hawver, dramatic coach, was the professor with the rest of the teachers as time keepers, score keepers and the like.

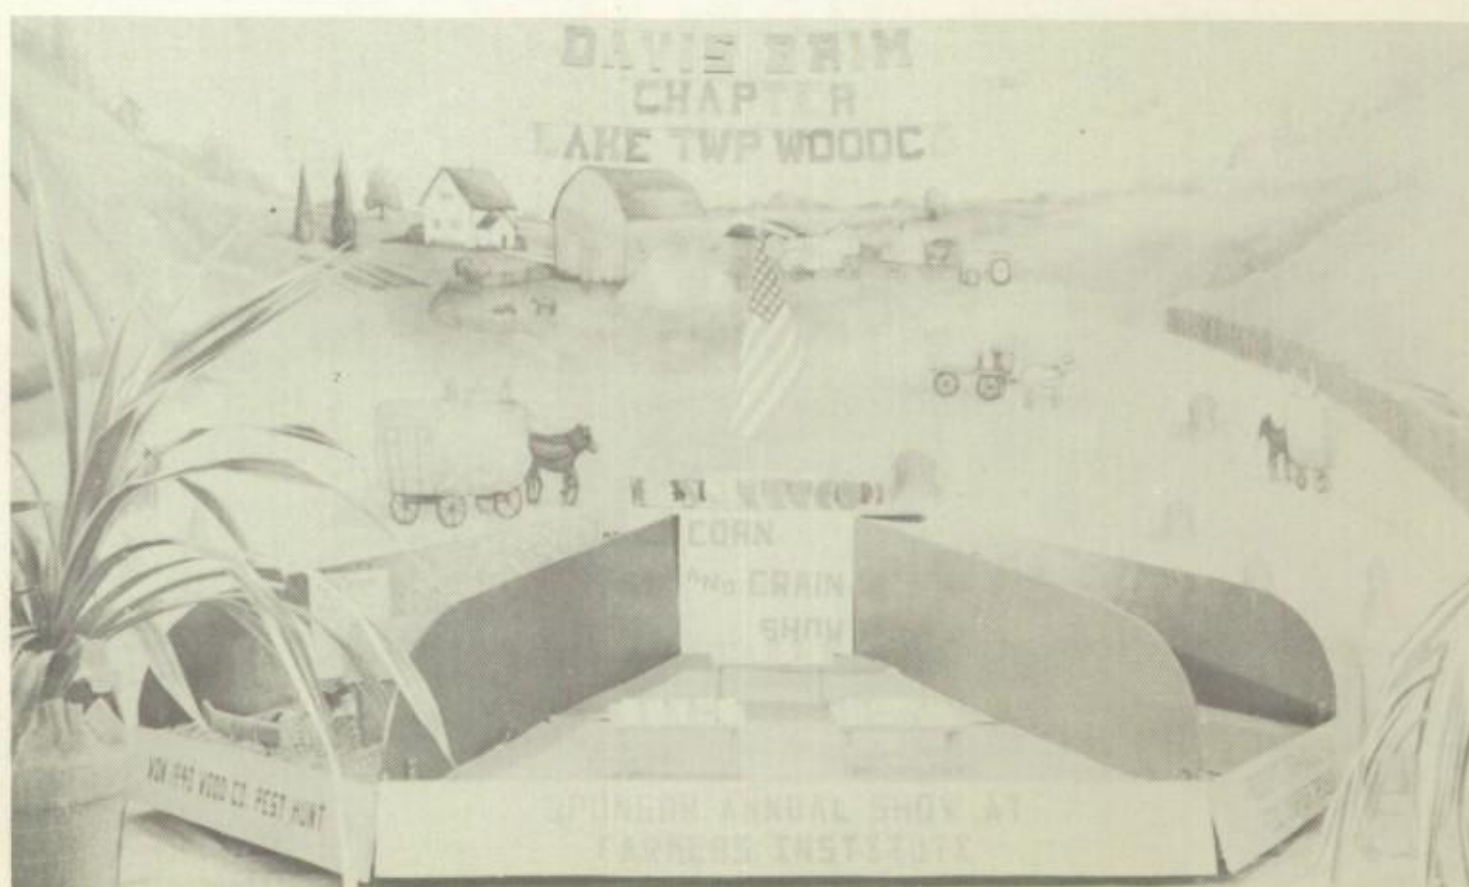

The girls prepared and served the Farmers' Institute meal which was held January 24. They were also called upon for the F. F. A. Banquet and the B. A. A. Banquet.

The year climaxed with the annual Spring Home Economics Club Convention held on April 18 and 19 in Columbus. Students who attended were: Harriet Stoner, Doris Jean McKinley, Joella Earsh, Iva Mae Isch and Alice Recker.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Gazing with interest at a film on modern farming, we see the progressive work our own organization of the Future Farmers of America is making.

The following officers were elected for the year 1940-1941.

President-----	Edward Nietz
Vice President-----	Lewis Motycka
Secretary-----	William Goeckerman
Treasurer-----	Don Swartz
Reporter-----	Glen Crago
Advisor-----	Mr. Hootman

The first enterprize undertaken by the Davis-Brim Chapter was a booth at the Ohio State Fair. Placed under the class "Cooperation", the local boys won first prize. For this good work, the boys received a beautiful trophy and approximately $40.00.

On October 15, the chapter welcomed nine new members into the organization, and were duly initiated to the Green Hand Degree. Eleven members were promoted to the Future Farmer Degree.

Entering the Wood County Pest Hunt, which lasted from November 15, 1940, to January 10, 1941, the Davis-Brim Chapter won with a quota of 770 points per boy. The boys were rewarded with a trophy which was presented at a banquet at Risingsun on February 18.

Another important function during the school year was the Parent-Son Banquet held on March 4. Present were eighty-five guests and sons. The second-year Home Economics class served for the occasion.

A proud possession of the chapter is the excellent Parliamentary Procedure Team, who won the District Contest at Fremont on March 8. On March 21, the team was ranked second from among a group of nearly one hundred teams, and received $5.00.

Eight grade boys were guests of the F. F. A. on April 8. These boys are planning to study agriculture next year.

Paying a debt, the chapter acted as host to the girls who helped out at the Parent-Son Banquet at a party in April.

A pleasure trip was enjoyed when the F. F. A. went to Chicago on November 26 to 28, 1940. Visiting the International Livestock Show, the Board of Trade, the Stock Yards, and Swift's Packing House, the trip was an enjoyable one.

The chapter's regular meetings are held every second Tuesday of each month. Concluding the year's activities, the F. F. A. sent teams in various groups to Columbus in June.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Every sports review must have a feminine interest. Therefore, this reel presents Lake's Girls' Athletic Association in a sparkling review of their activities.

The G. A. A. was organized this year to replace the inter-scholastic sports that were ruled out by the Ohio Athletic Association last year. The goal set by this worthy group is to develop a spirit of good sportsmanship.

Officers elected are:

President-----	Doris Cowles
Vice President-----	Alice Recker
Secretary-----	Mary Ann Williams
Treasurer-----	Dorothy Lilje
Chairman of Sportsmanship-----	Iva Mae Isch
Equipment Manager-----	Joan Moss

For sports participated in, points were given. The awards, either a letter, pin or key, presented at the end of the season, depended upon the number of points earned.

The members have found this organization very interesting and the under graduates are all looking forward to another year as members of the G. A. A.

BOYS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Next, the Lake Theater presents the society exclusive to boy athletes, who have at one time or another participated actively in some sport. It's the Boys' Athletic Association bringing to the screen their activities.

The B. A. A. was organized this year by Mr. Wilson for the purpose of promoting better sportsmanship among the boys participation in athletics.

The following officers were in charge:

President-----	Dick Lapis
Vice President-----	Fred Pieper
Secreatry-----	Lee Geisbuhler
Treasurer-----	Fred Pieper
Reporter-----	Glen Crago
Watch Dog-----	Harlan Failor

To finance the club the boys sold ice cream at all home games. They also planned the annual banquet and a party for its members.

DEBATERS

PURPLE MASQUE

"The Eyes and Ears of Lake High" begins, bringing to the screen news of Lake's organizations narrated by the 1941 Annual Staff. The first portion of the reel is devoted to the Purple Masque Society.

Remaining one of the most active and exclusive clubs, this society upholds the speech arts to the utmost. By combining education and recreation in their monthly get-togethers, they have established an enviable record in the past.

The presentation of an assembly program and several one-act plays are only a few of their achievements.

The cabinet in charge of general activities during the past year are:

President-----	Clyde Schulte
Vice-President-----	Philip Guthrie
Sec. of Records-----	Mary Ann Williams
Sec. of Treasury-----	Alice Recker
Sec. of Membership-----	Virginia Keller
Sec. of Programs-----	Eileen Root
Sec. of Entertainment-----	Richard Lapish
Sec. of Publicity and Awards-----	Glen Crago
Sec. of Interior Decorations-----	Geraldine Belch

Next, flashing across the screen comes the debate line-up from Lake who present their views on the question up for debate.

This group, from the time they began four years ago, has established an enviable record. Each year they have won high honors.

This year, as in years before, Lake's debate squad has had a busy year, participating in a total of forty-six debates. They tied with Delta for the district championship in the Ohio Speech League. Although Delta debaters defeated Lake in the play-off the Lake debaters won eight out of eleven debates.

The season closed with the presentation of the medals. Clyde Schulte received a gold medal for four years, Virginia Keller a gold medal for three years, Lewis Motycka a two year medal, and Glen Crago and Norma Brim each received a one year medal.

The musical interlude begins, a band sounds in the distance. It grows louder until we see marching across the screen the Lake Instrumental Review dressed in gala purple and white outfits.

The band performed at all the home basketball games, Wood County Basketball Tournament, Farmers' Institute and the Wood County Music Festival.

The following officers were in charge:

President-----	Iva Mae Isch
Vice-President-----	Alice Recker
Secretary-Treasurer-----	Jean Hicks
Reporter-----	Annabelle Niles
Student Manager-----	Doris Cowles

The new uniforms the band has been wearing were made possible through the money received in a magazine campaign.

Two capable majorettes led the band through formations and appeared at all performances. They were Norma Jean Scoff and Ruth Lehmann.

BOYS'
CHORUS

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The music begins, heads nod, some hum, others sway while still others fall off into dreams at the sound of the haunting refrains of Lake's Musical Shorts.

Approximately fifty girls compose the first chorus on this musical reel. The officers are:

President-----Ida Jane Meyers
Secretary-Treasurer---Doris Cowles
Librarian-----Gladys Sehr
Librarian-----Letty Peat
Librarian-----Annabelle Niles

In March, a forty-voice chorus journeyed to Bowling Green to enter into competition for state recognition. Although they didn't win, they felt the experience gained was well worth the time spent in preparing the numbers.

A trio, composed of Ida Jane Meyers, Dorothy Lilje, and Dorothy Eckert, entered the annual Solo and Ensemble Contest at Ada. Ida Jane also sang a solo. Both entries received a rating of "Excellent".

The girls also attended the Annual Music Festival on April 25, at Bowling Green.

BOYS' CHORUS

Those deep mellow voices now fill the air of Lake's gigantic theater. That's right, it's the Boy's Chorus rendering selections for the audience under the able direction of their supervisor.

This group began the season with a group of twenty boys led by the following elected officers.

President-----Fred Kruse
Vice President-----Louis Wiese
Secretary-Treasurer-----Clyde Schulte
Reporter-----Richard Eckles

A quartet was organized consisting of Louis Wiese, Glen Crago, Richard Eckles and Marshall Caswell.

The boys also attended the Annual Music Festival.

MIXED CHORUS

And now, the two choruses of the Lake Musical shorts unite into one vast group to present the most tuneful and colorful songs of the whole show. This climaxes our musical shorts of 1941.

This year Lake's mixed chorus was reorganized by their director, Miss Temple. The chorus was composed of sixty-five voices taken from the boys' and girls' choruses.

Officers elected are as follows:

President-----	Dorothy Lilje
Secretary-Treasurer-----	Geraldine Belch
Reporter-----	Gladys Sehr

This organization has participated in many activities throughout the year. An operetta entitled "Christmas High Jinks" was presented on December 19.

BASEBALL

An excited sigh is heard from all the boys in the audience as, during the sports review of the current baseball games, the Lake team is up to bat.

The fall baseball season opened with twenty eager candidates for the varsity squad. All of these boys received suits, but as the season progressed and the time of the County Tournament drew near this number was cut down to twelve.

The team, despite all their efforts, lost most of their games, and they are all hoping for a better season next year.

RESERVES

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The production continues to unwind bringing to the screen a review of the Lake Flyers in their 1940-41 season.

At the first call for basketball thirty-five hopeful enthusiasts appeared, including three members of last year's team. Two squads were soon selected by Coach Wilson.

Defeat met the basketball review stars in the annual Wood County Tournament when they were defeated in their first game. This game was played with Haskins and ended with a 38 to 25 score.

Lake's greatest rival, Walbridge, was no match for the Flyers, as they defeated the Bears both times, and as last year the Little Brown Jug will spend its vacation at Lake. This jug was also the theme of the annual banquet, held on March 25.

This year's varsity was composed of: Porterfield, Blaksley, Failor, Knudson, Lapish, Pieper, Jackson, Rudolph, Obrock, and Goeckerman.

A schedule of the games won and lost is shown as follows:

Games	They	We
North Troy	13	36

TRACK

- ROW 1: Dick Eckles, Charles Hitchens Howard Beck.
 ROW 2: Warren Mahaffey, Bernard Jackson, Jimmie Porterfield Dale Blaksley, Luther Obrock, Frederick Pieper, Richard Lapish, Dale Myers, Ned Puse.
 ROW 3: Clyde Schulte, Manager, Neil Blaksley, Richard Baldwin, Franklin Oatley, Mr. Wilson, John Rudolph, Don Calmes, William Goeckerman, Harvey Failor, Assistant Manager.

On your mark !-get ready !-set !-go !-and the five contestants in the 220 dash are soon running across the screen before our eyes. Isn't that Lake ahead?

More enthusiasm was shown in track this spring than in many years. As a result, many boys came out for track. The boys making up the squad for the county meet were: Lapish, Puse, Geisbuhler, Pieper, Porterfield, Rudolph, Oatley, Jackson, Swartz, Myers, Obrock, Beck, Hitchens, Blaksley, and Calmes. During the season some of the victims of the Wilsonmen were: North Troy, Pemberville, Perrysburg, Wayne, Bloomdale, Liberty, Luckey, Tontogany, North Baltimore and Risingsun.

April 26 was the big day for 1133 high school track stars for Ohio and Pennsylvania. These boys participated in the Ohio Wesleyan Relay held at Delaware, Ohio. Lake's team entered the Medley Relay and the Two Mile Relay. The boys finished fourth and fifth in these respective events, competing against twenty-four other teams. Porterfield was the only Class B-100 yard dash man to run in the finals.

Our Clients Make the Selection

No attempt is ever made in this establishment to in the slightest degree influence the selection of a casket or funeral service. We have always made it a policy to invite a free choice, influenced only by the individual family's desires and the amount which they wish to spend. There is a service and a casket in every conceivable price range, but no matter what the selection may be, the same sympathetic, personal attention is given in every case.

Trained attendants are on every call. We render the most complete invalid coach service.
